VIII PLANT HEALTH DAYS OF SLOVAK PLANT HEALTH SOCIETY

on 15 – 16 October 2019 in Nitra

focused on the leading issue

”New challenges in plant protection – route to the future”

VIII Slovak Plant Health Days will be focused on:

1. Quo vadis, plant protection?
2. Precise agriculture, including:
 - a) digitalisation and sensor-based technologies in plant protection
 - b) robotics
 - c) application equipment
 - d) drones
3. Introduction of the National Action plan of the Slovak Republic (NAP SR)
4. Advisory service for professional and non-professional users of PPPs
5. Forecasts and warning;
6. Biological control.
7. Young generation's perspectives in plant protection.

Within these plant health days, positions and opinions by domestic and foreign experts will be presented in respect of the leading issue as well as questions and answers to address actual topics. The demonstration part held at Agrokomplex Exhibition premises forms an inseparable part of our event.

VIII SPHD agenda:

VIII Slovak Plant Health Days will be held in Nitra as an international conference. Day 1 of the event (15 Oct 2019) will be dedicated to the leading issue “New challenges in plant protection – route to the future”. During the entire Day 1, the interpretation between English and Slovak will be provided.

Day 2 of the event (16 Oct 2019) the demonstration part will be held at Agrokomplex Exhibition premises. This part will be divided into more thematic sections that will specified later.

On the both days, apart from domestic experts also guests from Czech Republic, Austria, Germany and Hungary will give presentations. This will provide us with the opportunity to exchange views and ideas.

SPHD will also produce proceedings, where papers submitted no later than on 2nd September 2019 will be published. Any information on practical and theoretical knowledge concerning the conference topics is welcome.
